RULES FOR THE PRINTERS

Civil Service Commission Issues the G. P. O. Regulations.

PREPARED FOR EXAMINATION

On August First and Every Day Thereafter Those Who Want Places as Compositors, Pressmen, Bookbinders and for Minor Positions Will Be Put Through a "Course of Sprouts."

The Civil Service Commission is now prepared to examine applicants for the positions of compositor, pressman, bookbinder and for minor positions in that office, such as feeder, helper, folder, sewer, runner, binder, etc., etc. An examination for these positions will be held at the rooms of the Commission in this city on August 1 and each day thereafter until the examination is completed.

Applications will be received from men only for examination for pressman, bookbinder and helper, from men and women for examination for compositor and runner, from women only for examination for feeder, folder, sewer, binder and helper.

Male applicants must not be less than twenty-one years or over forty-five years of age, and female applicants not less than eighteen years or over thirty-five years of age. Applicants for positions included in the trades should state in their applications whether they wish to be examined for compositor, pressman, or bookbinder, or if they desire to be examined for any of the minor places they should apply for the skilled labor examination, which examination will be given for all of the minor places above enumerated. The rules go on to say:

"The subjects of the examination for compositor will be as follows: (1) Orthography; (2) penmanship; (3) letter writing; (4) arithmetic; (5) practical question."

"The arithmetic of this examination will be of an elementary character. All of the minor positions will be included under the head of 'skilled labor,' and the subjects of the skilled labor examination will be as follows: (1) Orthography; (2) penmanship; (3) copying; (4) arithmetic."

"The arithmetic of this examination will be of an elementary character. The Commission is not prepared at present to furnish information in regard to the examination for positions of stenographer, typewriter, etc. Notice of these

THE PRACTICAL TEST—The second of the practical tests will be given only to those who are selected for appointment from the preliminary or educational test. This practical examination will be given under the supervision of the commission when the person selected for appointment reports for duty. An applicant should therefore not claim, nor should his vouchers claim for him, any preference or position in the trade in which he desires to be employed that he can demonstrate upon the practical test. Those who fail to make 75 per cent. out of a possible 100 per cent. in the practical examination will not be appointed to the service.

"Separate registers will be made up for compositors, pressmen, bookbinders, stenographers, and typewriters. The rules for the minor positions not included among the trades will be entered upon only one register, and will be certified for by the commission in any of the positions mentioned."

"Appointments to the Government Printing Office will not be appointed exactly among the States and Territories, but it will be the aim of the commission to distribute appointments as far as possible among the States and Territories."

"No person can be eligible for appointment to more than one branch of the service at the same time, and persons whose names are on the eligible list for appointment to any other branch of the service must wait to the commission and request that their eligibility be canceled before they can be appointed to the positions for the government printing service."

Published for the Government Printing Office, Edward Jackson, colored, was arrested Sunday for stealing newspapers left at the cigar store of Edward Hunter, at Second and Pennsylvania avenues, and in the police court yesterday Judge Miller sentenced him to sixty days in jail.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14, 1895.—To all whom it may concern: The commission created by section 2 of public act No. 114, approved March 2, 1895, has the honor to inform the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a certified copy of a map showing the proposed permanent system of highways in the District of Columbia within the area bounded by North Capitol street, Rock Creek, Florida avenue, and the District line. This map and plans showing in detail how each lot and tract is affected by the proposed system of highways are now on exhibition in the office of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. All persons interested are invited to examine the map and plans. This commission will consider any suggestion or protest concerning the location of any highway or portion of a highway as shown on the map. The suggestions and protests must be in writing and must clearly set forth the reasons for the changes, and show the property owned or controlled by the objector. All protests, etc., must be submitted on or before July 15, 1895, and be addressed to the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, War Department, Washington, D. C. This Commission will meet, on July 15, 1895, at 9 o'clock a. m., in the office of the Secretary of War, to dispose of all objections, and will then hear orally from those who desire to do so in support of their written objections. DANIEL S. LAMONT, Secretary of War. H. C. RICHSON, Secretary of the Interior. WM. P. CRAIGHEAD, Chief of Engineers, U. S. Army. J16-1m
